

GENERAL EDUCATION

To be considered a general education placement, 51% of the STUDENTS in the setting must be non-disabled peers.

General education is about the non-academic benefits of being with non-disabled students.

Curriculum, teachers, classroom are not what determines if the setting is general education.

